

User Manual [Boxinator]

This document contains a manual for usage of the application called Boxinator.

Frontpage

A login-page and a register-page is available to a visitor of the website. If the user already has an account, logging in will be the next step. If not, register a new account by navigating to the register-page, filling out the form with the desired credentials.

This will send an email asking for verification of the account and then activate multi factor authentication. When trying to login, the user has to verify the login attempt with a code that will be sent to the provided phone number.

We'll never share your email with anyone else.

You can create shipments as guest user, provided that you enter your email.

When a new shipment is created, we will send a receipt to you email on which you can sign up and claim the shipment.

A navbar is present where the user can navigate to a profile page and a page which lists the shipments relevant to the user.

To create a shipment, simply fill out the form and confirm the order inside the modal that pops up.

The modal will include all information about the shipment. Once the user has confirmed the shipment, a redirection to the current users shipments will occur. Here the user can see all relevant shipments.

The user will only have one type of modification to the shipments and that is to cancel a shipment. A user can also navigate to a profile page where information about the account will be shown. The user has the option to edit this information except the ID of the account. This page also has a button where the user can log out.

Logged in as admin

When logged in, the admin is presented with a menu that contains links to some administrative subpages.

These subpages are lists for all accounts(see figure 12), shipments(see figure 15) and countries(see figure 18). Within these lists, an admin can choose to edit almost all data in all entries(see figure 13, 16 and 19), exceptions being ID's, price of a shipment and the account that created a shipment. An admin can also choose to remove accounts, shipments or countries but only in extreme cases(see figure 14, 17 and 20).
